

Multimedia and photography exhibits open

Two exhibits are on view beginning Monday at SUNY Orange's Orange Hall Gallery on the Middletown campus. For the 65th year, members of the Middletown Art Group have a juried multimedia exhibit in the main gallery, and in the loft is a photography show by Artur Charukhchyan titled "The World in Monochrome." A reception embracing both exhibits will be from 1-4 p.m. May 15. Pianist Judith Hosmer Garrett of Montgomery will provide music.

The art group, led by Jill Constantino, president, will be judged by Andrew Lattimore of Highland Mills. The work will be on view through June 12. For gallery hours, call 341-4891 or visit sunyorange.edu/culturalaffairs.

Barbara Bedell

Charukhchyan

Garrett

Constantino

Coming up

■ A yard sale is being conducted from 9 a.m.-3 p.m. today at Scotchtown Elementary School in Goshen. The rain date is May 14.

■ The second student art exhibit of Newburgh Performing Arts Academy students, ages 5-18, is on view at the Yellow Bird Gallery at the Newburgh

Photo provided

Artist Andrew Lattimore of Highland Mills will judge the Middletown Art Group's exhibit that can be viewed May 9-June 12 at SUNY Orange's Orange Hall in Middletown.

Waterfront, and can be viewed Monday beginning at 6 p.m. There will be a silent auction, light refreshments and music. For information, call 562-5650.

■ The 100th annual awards and business dinner meeting of the Orange County Bar Association will be Thursday at the Town of Wallkill Golf Club in Circleville. A cash bar social hour is at 5:30 p.m., and dinner follows. Featured speaker is the recently retired Anthony T. Kane, associate justice of the Appellate Division, 3rd Judicial Department. Among the many awards will be the John S. McBride Lifetime Achievement Award presented to Richard J. Drake, and the Outstanding Service Award to Glen A. Plotsky. Portrait presentations will honor Joseph A. Owen and David J. Ritter, each of whom also will receive a 50-year service award along with Drake.

Tickets are $65 for members and $75 for nonmembers.

■ A four-week support group led by yoga therapist Maria Blon will begin from 6:30-7:45

Photo provided

Matt Evans, Dana Booher, Stephen Page and Stacy Wilson - known as the Zzyzx Saxophone Quartet - will offer a concert May 14 in Cornwall.

p.m. Thursday at Jewish Family Service, 720 Route 17M in the Town of Wallkill. It's free, but registration is required by calling 341-1173, ext. 300.

This and that

■ The Zzyzx Saxophone Quartet will offer a concert at 7:30 p.m. May 14 at St. John's Episcopal Church in Cornwall. Admission is $10. For information, call the church office at 534-5475 or visit the website at stjohnscornwall.org.

■ Truth Muller, an Ellenville School District student who won a trip to Disney World for his family by writing an essay on healthy eating, has been studying all sorts of mythology lately. His mom found a National Mythology Test, which he took, and he just received notice that his perfect score earned him the Athena Gold Medal of Excellence. Congratulations.

■ Friends of the Chester

Library is hosting a bus trip June 26 from the Chester Library to Broadway to see "How to Succeed in Business." Tickets are $120, which include orchestra seats. To reserve a place, call the library at 469-4252.

■ Load N Go Press in Kiamesha Lake, after 22 years, is reprinting "To the Mountains by Rail" by railroad artist, historian and educator Manville Wakefield (1924-75). Myron Gittell is seeking original art from the book for best quality reprints, and also welcomes any knowledge of errors, misidentifications, etc., that were in the original. Reach him at 794-3772 or myrongit@yahoo.com.

Barbara Bedell's column appears daily. Reach her at 346-3125 or by e-mail: bbedell@th-record.com.